

Let Your Light Shine

After the 2016 election, I was deeply saddened and didn't know if I would ever feel inspired again. Then, one day as I pulled into my driveway, I noticed fall leaves gathered against the edge. I stopped my car, and just sat there, noticing beauty in something so ordinary. A spark happened inside of me, and I felt the excitement of being inspired again. I ran into my house, grabbed my camera, and returned to take several snapshots of the leaves. This was my inspiration for creating "Let Your Light Shine."
